What's New in Healthcare

Dr. Peter Rookes PhD. MPH. DHSA. FETC. RCNT. RGN. RNMH

Mrs Jean Rookes MA. BEd. BSc.

2. Introduction

The Health Service Reforms resulting from the Health & Social Care Act came into being on 1st April 2013.

Essential principles:-

1. Be clinically led
2. Have greater patient and public involvement in decision making
3. Quality of care should be at the centre of all we do

3. NHS Reforms (simplified)

- PCTs (Primary Care Trusts) abolished.
 - NHS England established
 - Local CCGs (GP Clinical Commissioning Groups) commission services from NHS Trusts & in some cases from the 3rd & Private Sectors.
 - Provider Trusts (Hospital & Community Services) work towards NHS Foundation Trust status
 - Public Health transferred to Local Authorities

4. NHS Reforms Simplified

- Local Health and Wellbeing Boards agree health and social care strategy, and facilitate joint working between NHS and Local Authorities
 - Healthwatch England and Local Healthwatches replace LINks
 - Monitor has quality responsibility in addition to finance, efficiency, effectiveness, etc
 - CQC (Care Quality Commission) responsible for care standards – extended to GP Practices
 - LA Overview & Scrutiny Committees continue

5. FYFV – Five Year Forward View

- Published Oct 2014 by Simon Stevens, Chf Exec, NHS England
- Accepted by all political parties:-
- Prevention & public health
- Greater control of own care
- Break down barriers
